New Graduate Student Orientation
August 8 - 15, 2022

Aloha William Huanshan,

Congratulations on your acceptance to the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa! We at Graduate Division are excited to see you begin your graduate journey to an advanced degree or certificate. To welcome you, we are hosting New Graduate Student Orientation (NGSO) from August 8 to 15, 2022. Attending NGSO is a great opportunity to understand expectations at UH Mānoa and how to prepare for a successful graduate student experience.

NGSO participants will have the flexibility to select which synchronous virtual topic sessions they would like to attend and have the option to view session recordings from previous years if unable to participate in real-time. Session topics include learning about graduate-level writing, developing good relationships with faculty mentors, finding funding opportunities, and more. An in-person resource fair is scheduled for August 15th, 9:00-11:00 am so you can join us on campus to connect with key offices, programs, and services.

Details are forthcoming, so please continue to check your email. Updates, including registration information, will be posted on our NGSO webpage as soon as they become available. For any questions about NGSO, please email us at gdevents@hawaii.edu.
